

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. presents Women's History Panel
Cobb-based organizations to collaborate on community event

(MARIETTA) Feb. 20, 2019 – The Rho Zeta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. is one of four local service-based groups who are co-sponsoring the 11th Annual Women's History Day. This panel discussion is March 2 from 9:30-noon at Chattahoochee Technical College North (5198 Ross Road, Acworth, GA 30102).

This year's theme is "Unpacking the Briefcase: Women Leaders, So Now What!" A panel of local leaders from varying backgrounds will discuss how females can face today's societal problems using education, experience and empathy.

The panel will be moderated by Shelley Elder. She is the 2017 Cobb County recipient of the Sam Olens Award for Charitable Giving, 2018 recipient of the Cobb County Citizen of the Year for Kennesaw, and Kennesaw's 2018 Business of the Year.

Panelists are:

- Maranie Brown, Digital Program Manager & VP Elect (Learning and Development) of the Junior League of Atlanta
- Janine Eveler, Director of Cobb County Elections & Registration
- Erika Gravett, Executive Director of Institutional Equity & Title IX Coordinator at KSU
- Judge Kellie Hill, Cobb County Magistrate Court

Event sponsors include the Rho Zeta Omega chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Cobb County Women's Club, American Association of University Women, and League of Women Voters – Marietta Cobb Chapter.

This event is open to the public. Admission is $10 and includes all fees and a continental breakfast. For more information and to register, visit Eventbrite.com or akarhozetaomega.org.
